

DISC Conflict Strategies That Work

Interactive workshop to unleash the potential on your team.

Learn how to approach people

Negotiate with success

Build strong team relationships

Give your team tools to reduce stress and work through hard things in a healthy way. Participants take part of high energy and interactive training to reduce team stress and develop wisdom in relating with teammates. Sessions explore how to break the cycle of conflict, approach others in times of stress, and discuss problems in ways that build strong relationships. A workshop includes:

- 4 hours of interactive training
- 1-1 calls with team leader
- Pre-work DISC assessments
- Certified expert facilitation of workshop at your location
- The DISC Conflict Strategies That Work curriculum
- Printed DISC team chart and individual reports
- Follow up email communication and resources
- 1-year subscription to the Team Portal HR Tools
- Coaching to navigate conflict on your team

Objectives and outcomes:

- Understand conflict responses
- Learn how to approach people
- Cultivate honesty
- Reduce team stress
- Negotiate with success
- Build strong team relationships

Give your team the advantage!

Communication

People Skills

Leadership

Team Player

Personal Development

Build a productive, people-focused work environment by encouraging your team to discover their workplace strengths, weaknesses, and leadership style.

Strong Workplace Relationships

Proactively train your team to communicate, build trust, and get better results with people, whether clients or teammates.

Culture of Diversity

Equip your team to work well in diversity, not forcing all people to be or work the same way.

We help teams thrive.

Hi, I'm Matt King, founder of Team Verve. I love helping teams thrive in their workplace while having fun in the process!

As a certified facilitator, I provide high-energy and interactive training that engages your whole team. Every workshop mixes world-renowned DISC content with interactive learning expertise to stimulate immediate application.

Your team develops skills they need to get better results. You get the support you need to build a successful team.

